NCTV'S Fourth Year

The control room at Channel 12 is a busy place as the Mustang Media crew get ready to do a show.

Merri Evenson interviews Pat Klein while Debbie Fogle and Greg Schieferstein record them on the Mustang Media Magazine.

The television crew at NCHS produces many types of video shows and some of them are seen on Channel 12, the public broadcasting station in Casper. This year the studios at the station were completely remodeled, forcing Mustang Media Magazine off the air for six months, but the TV class video-taped a variety of programs during that time, including a special program for junior high students explaining the vocational program at high school, the Mr. Mustang Contest, the CY Junior High Variety Show, and the class wrote and produced its own "Wednesday Night Live" satire show. Merri Evenson and Greg Schieferstein won the awards for the outstanding people in television, while Pat Klein won best TV actor and Debbie Fogle won the most improved TV person award.

The Unsinkable Molly Brown

The 1980 spring musical, May 1-3, was the Unsinkable Molly Brown. The show was based on the real story of the Colorado social climber who became a footnote to history when she survived the sinking of the Titanic in 1912 by her domineering management of a lifeboat, and so became known as "the unsinkable Mrs. Brown." Above: Molly, played by Amy Palmquist, sings "Belly Up to the Bar, Boys" with some of the miners. The 1979-1980 Mustang Basketball team spoiled the predictions of most fans by finishing high in the state standings. In pre-season polls, the roundballers were picked to finish near the bottom of the league because of a lack of height and experience. But, the Mustangs out-hustled and out-ran most of their opponents ending the season with a great 16-9 record, 3rd place in conference, 3rd in Regionals. They won the consolation trophy at State Tournament by soundly defeating the West Region favorite, Rock Springs, in the consolation championship game.

Senior Supplement

Members of the senior class are shown in a solemn pose as they finish planting a tree in the inner courtyard in memory of one of their deceased classmates.

Cadet Dwane Small snaps a salute as he is presented an Outstanding Cadet Award at the annual ROTC awards banquet. Looking on proudly is his date, Janice Clark along with his parents.

Winner of the coveted Principal's Trophy, Michelle Murphy, and Mary O'keefe are just about ready to present NCHS principal, Mr. Kamish, with the AA State Girl's Tennis Championship awards.

Relaxing at the lake, members of the football team make an effort to cover up their short hair cuts prior to starting another winning season for NCHS. Assistant Superintendent, Herman Boner joins in the revelry.

Mike McDaniels with an assist from Tim Smith and Robert Peterman tightens his climbing gear as he makes an assault on NCHS decending into the inner court.

Proving that equal rights isn't dead, Amy Palmquist, Jeanne Lammers, Julie Gillette, Donna Nickerson, Karin Kristoferson, Jeannie George and Susie Oldham do a reverse panty raid by hanging out on the line shorts that they have somehow managed to get their hands on.

NCHS newcomer, Lisa Martinson gets the final touch put on her graduation gown as her sister Lori looks admirerly at her as if to say "only two more years to go and I'll be there too".

After a successful 4th annual "Annie Awards" ceremony, Karen Bradshaw expresses the same feelings as Mrs. Houser by indicating "it's all over now" !

Ray Clanton looks on as Prom Queen, Mary O'Keefe, and King, Jon Freiberg show their royalty crowns for all the world to see.

Taking a short break from Prom activities, Corinne Brown, Mike Layton, Nicki Beaudoin and Kirk Shamley finally found a way to get their picture in the annual.

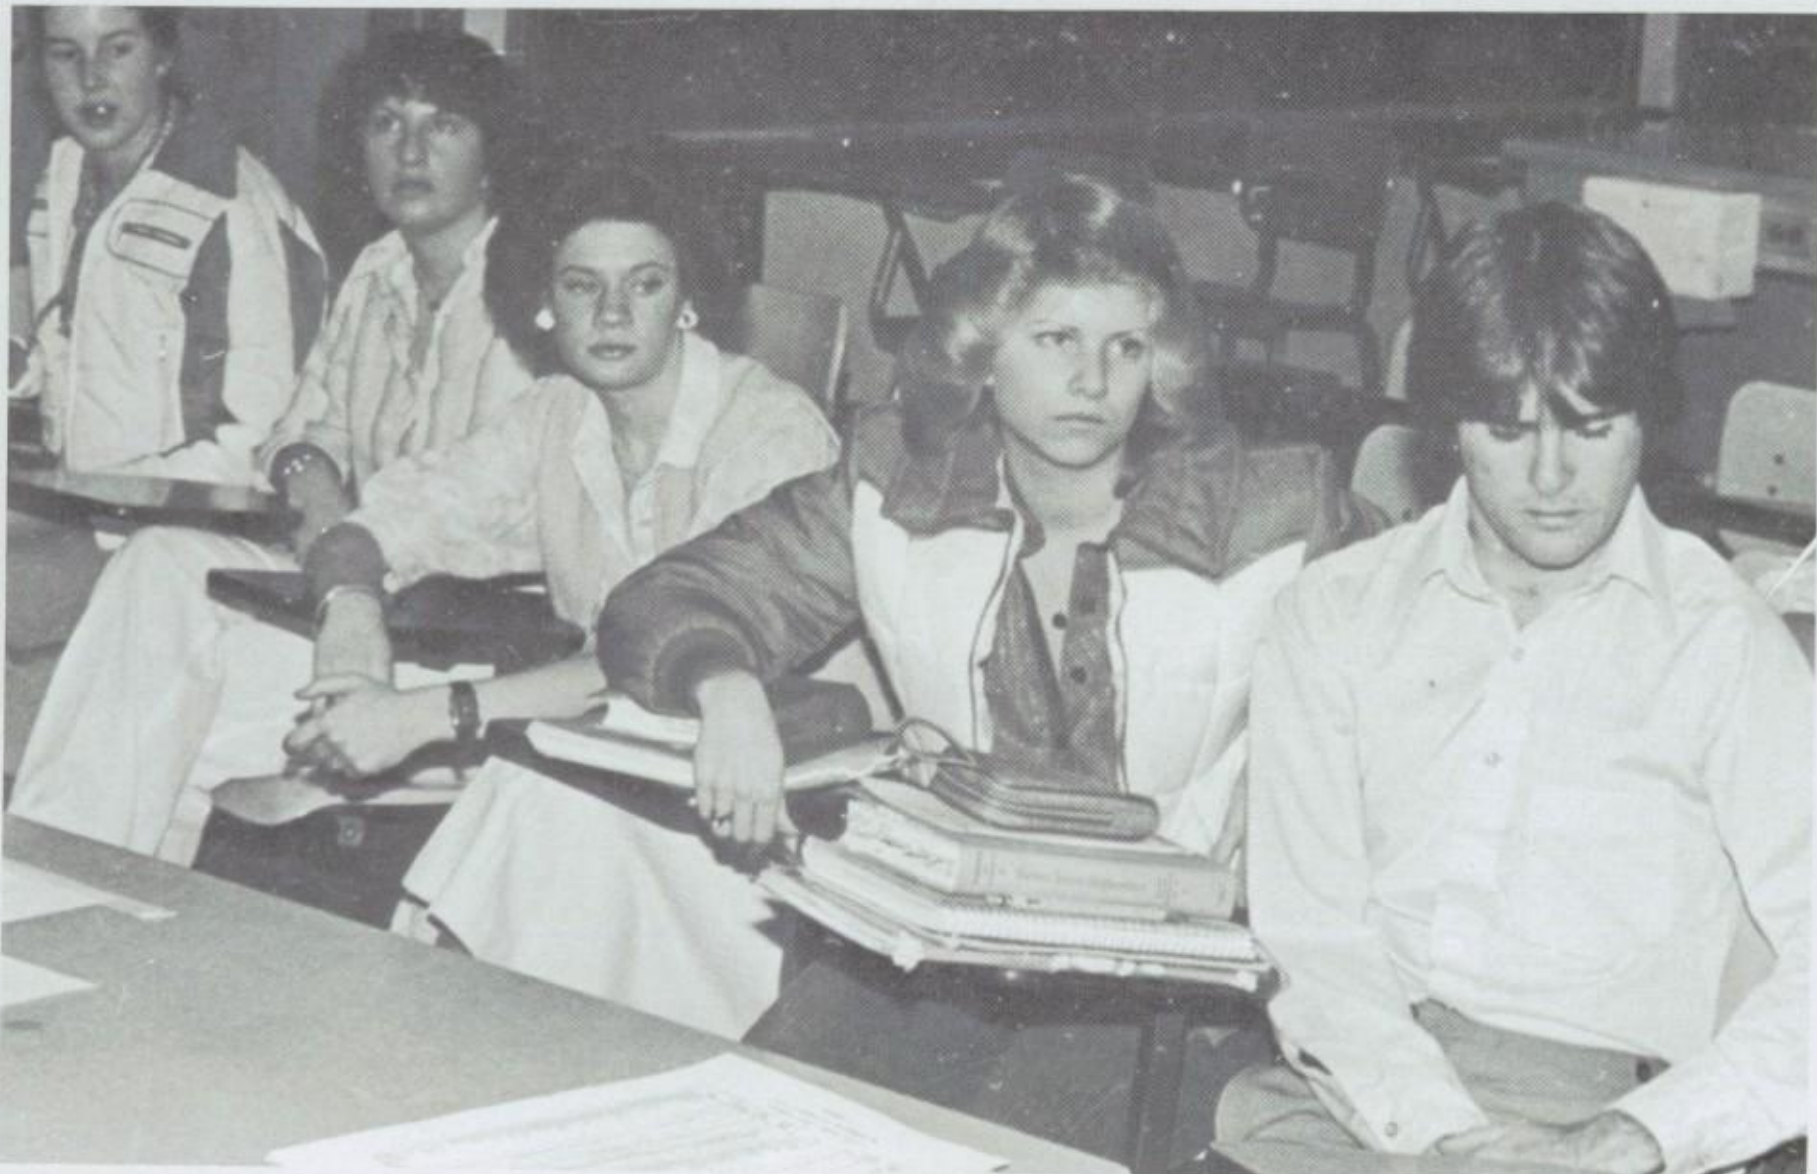

Almost all-everything, senior Rob Hand gets ready to continue the gruelling practice that made him the expert skier that he is.

Kelly Cook puts the final double rulings on her accounting simulation set as she indicates to our photographer what a long struggle it has been.

Gail Claar, Judy Madden, Kristin Koch, Deanna Brecheisen and Tom Hirst seem to be paying attention to what Mr. Rizzi has to say at one of the early morning National Honor Society meetings.

Definition of Americanism and Communism 76th Congress House Report

"(A) AMERICANISM DEFINED: In the first place, Americanism is the recognition of the truth that the inherent and fundamental rights of man are derived from God and not from governments, societies, dictators, kings, or majorities. This basic principle of Americanism is expressed in the Declaration of Independence, where our immortal forefathers said that all men are created equal and that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights, chief among which are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. From this declaration and the well-established interpretation that have been put upon it from the beginning of the Republic down to the present mement, it is clear that Americanism recognized the existence of a God and the all-important fact that the fundamental rights of man are derived from God and not from any other source. Among these inalienable rights which are the gifts of man from his Creator are: (1) Freedom of worship; (2) freedom of speech; (3) freedom of press; (4) freedom of assemblage; (5) freedom to work in such occupation as the experience, training, and qualifications of any man may enable him to secure and hold; (6) freedom to enjoy the fruits of his work, which means the protection of property rights; (7) the right to pursue his happiness with the necessary implication that he does not harm or injure others in the pursuit of this happiness. Upon this basic principle, the whole structure of the American Government was constructed. ***

The American Government was established to guarantee the enjoyment of these fundamental rights. It therefore follows that in America the Government is the servant of the people. The characteristic which distinguishes our Republic from the dictatorships of the world is not majority rule, but the treatment of minorities. Dictatorships muster huge majorities at the polls, through intimidation and high-powered government propaganda, but these majorities are used for ruthless tyranny over minorities. The majority rule of the American form of Government is distinguished by its recognition of certain rights of minorities which majorities cannot alienate.

(B) COMMUNISM DEFINED: Communism is a world-wide political organization advocating: (1) the abolition of all forms of religion; (2) the destruction of private property and the abolition of inheritance; (3) absolute social and racial equality; (4) the revolution under the leadership of the Communist International; (5) engaging in activities in foreign countries in order to cause strikes, riots, sabotage, bloodshed, and civil war; (6) destruction of all forms of representative or democratic government, including civil liberties such as freedom of speech, of the press, and of assemblage; (7) the ultimate objective of world revolution to establish the dictatorship of the so-called proletariat into a universal union of Soviet Socialist Republics with its capital at Moscow; (8) the achievement of these ends through extreme appeals to hatred.

The Communists, like the Nazis and Fascists, believe and advocate that it is the duty of government to support the people and the right of government to exact blind obedience on all matters from the people. All three of these systems seek to regiment the people under bureaucratic and paternalistic governments through a system of planned economy. In the place of individual initiative and effort, they seek to establish a collectivism which will transform the individual into a slave of the state. Intolerance and hatred are preached in order to gain the people's adherence to the collectivistic philosophy, and the promise of economic security is constantly dangled before their eyes to lure them into slavery. The economic security of collectivism is the security of a prison. People are asked to sacrifice their fundamental rights in return for the false promise that they will gain material comfort and economic security. It follows, therefore, that Communism is diametrically opposed to Americanism. It also follows that a scheme of philosophy of government or a teaching which embraces all or any essential part of the principles of communism is Un-American."

NONTRADITIONAL JOBS . . .

Times are changing. People are changing. And so are job opportunities. Slowly but surely, the age-old barriers between "men's jobs" and "women's jobs" are coming down throughout the country. Take a long look at these telephone company employees. They're proving that being the right person for a job really depends on the individual, not on his or her sex. We're working to make sex-stereotypes a thing of the past in our business. But we can't reach our goal without people like these, who have had the interest and initiative to break through traditional job barriers. Sound like your kind of thing? If it does, find out today what a nontraditional job could do for you tomorrow at Mountain Bell.
